

Teaching in the digital age: what every language teacher should know

Pete Sharma

Innovative trends

(1) Rise in learning platforms

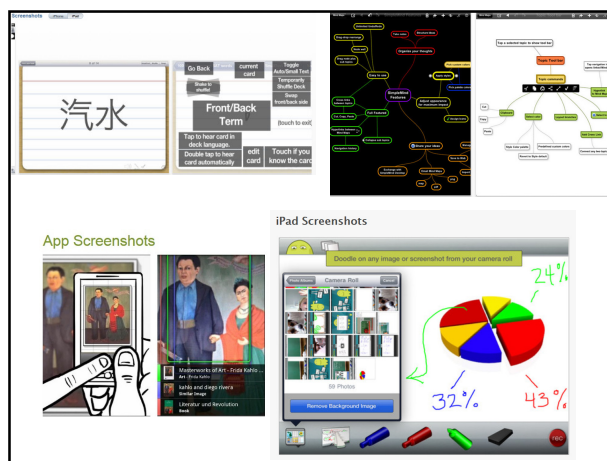

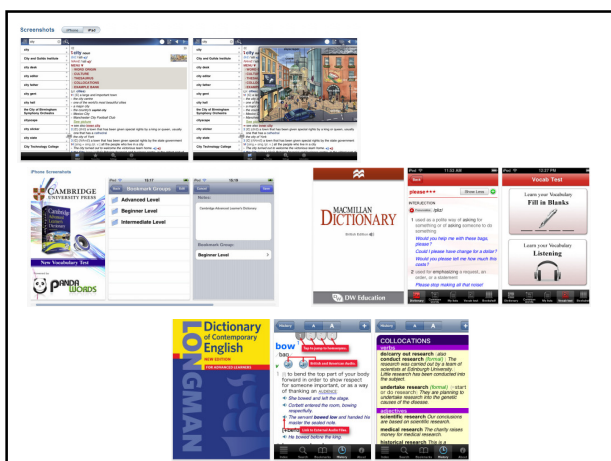

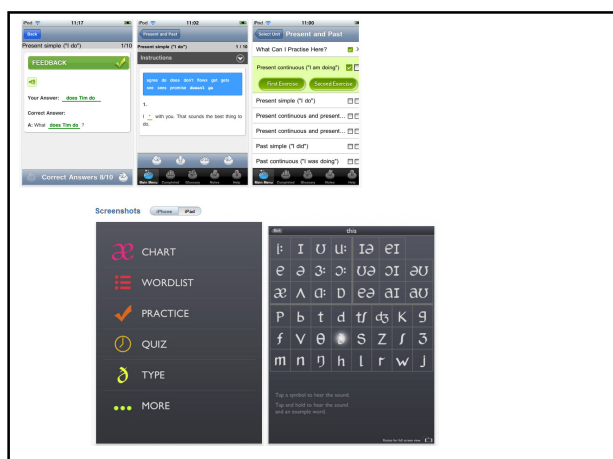

Publishers
Authentic
Teacher-produced

(2) Publisher-produced software

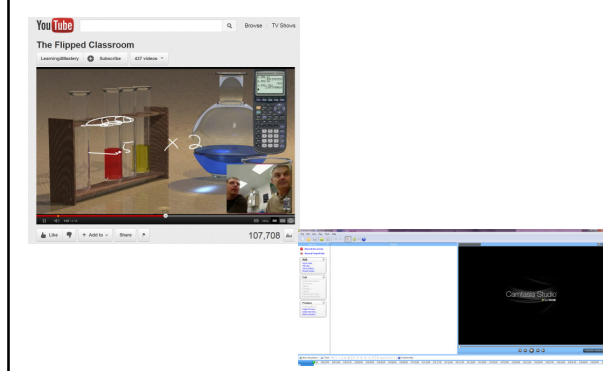

(3) Apps & M-learning

(4) The flipped classroom

(5) Learner response devices

(6) Touch screen IWBs

(7) Exam Speak IELTS

(8) QR-codes

Critical analysis of five technologies

- 1) Interactive whiteboards
- 2) Blogs
- 3) Wikis
- 4) Virtual Learning Environments
- 5) M-learning

Interactive whiteboards

Peripherals

Learner response devices

Voting

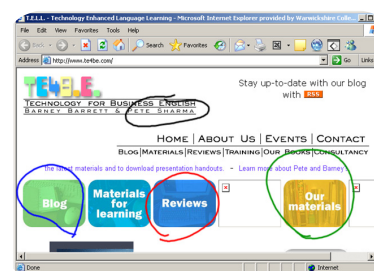

Text to board

Slates

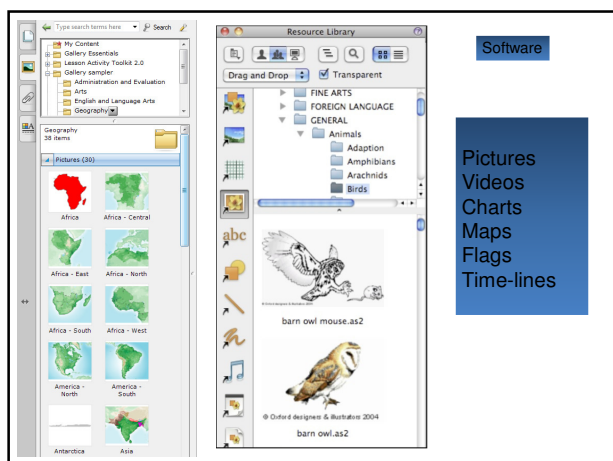

Four approaches

Run regular programmes

Software

Pictures Videos
Charts
Maps
Flags
Time-lines

Wikis

Upside

- collaborative
- process writing
- 'history' to see changes

Downside

- not intuitive
- not everyone wishes for peer correction

Virtual Learning Environments

School to university

Features:
 Assignments
 Chatrooms
 Questionnaire
 Quizzes
 Forum
 Glossary
 Handouts

15 May, 2012

© Pete Sharma Associates Limited 2009

Focus on appropriacy

Synchronous

Asynchronous

Virtual Learning Environments

Upside

- information on demand
- appropriacy e.g. critical thinking
- pre / post course tasks

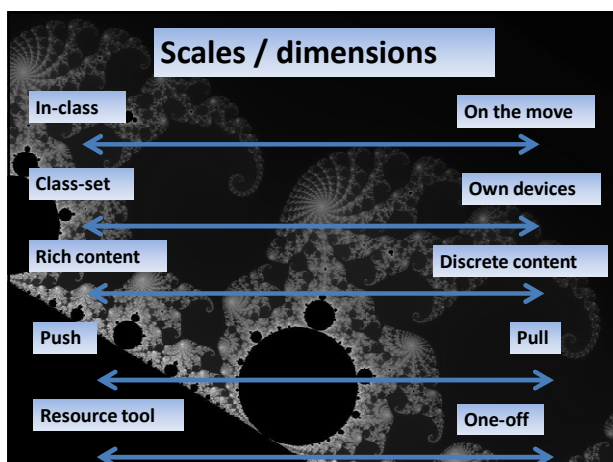

Downside

- time-consuming to learn
- empty at first
- 'blended courses' pleasing no-one

M-learning

"learning that happens when the learner takes advantage of the learning opportunities offered by mobile technologies".

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mobile_learning

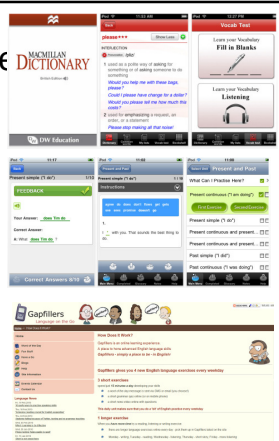

Hardware

- Mobile-phone / Smart-phone
- iPod / iPod touch / mp3 player
- Laptop / Notebook - Netbook
- Tablet PC / iPad / Samsung Gal
- E-book readers
- Learner response devices
- c tran

Software

- Dictionaries
- Grammar practice
- Services
- ELT material
- Apps

M-learning

Upside

- buzz-term
- add value
- 'just enough, just in time, just for me'
- exciting apps

Downside

- Range of interpretations
- Over-reference to 'apps'
- ELT or authentic?

Part three: Practical ideas

G1 - Unlikely-likely language

- 40 persons / 40 people.
- We're at Stockholm / We're in Stockholm
- If we would have done that.....
- Did you do that already? / Have you done it yet?
- If I was you / If I were you
- Charles, you're not understanding me

G2 - Infinite clone tool

Right or wrong?

"I am born in Poona"

"I have seen Mark yesterday"

"I am in London for two days"

"If I will see James, I will give him the message"

G3 Grammar matrix

HIGH

LOW

Like / dislike

V1 - Word frequency

Flipchart 1: Word frequency scale

1 = extremely common words (Red 3-star) / 2 = common words (Red 2-star) / 3 = fairly common words (Red - one star) / 4 = less common (Black, no star)

Decide how frequent the following are: frame / fracture / nomination / nod / rob

Flipchart 2: frame 1 2 3 4
 Flipchart 3: fracture 1 2 3 4
 Flipchart 4: nomination 1 2 3 4
 Flipchart 5: nod (vb) 1 2 3 4
 Flipchart 6: rob 1 2 3 4

Flipchart 7: final answer

V2 Storage

V3 Note-able words

Listening 1 - MEC

Then

- "I'm going to play the tape twice....."

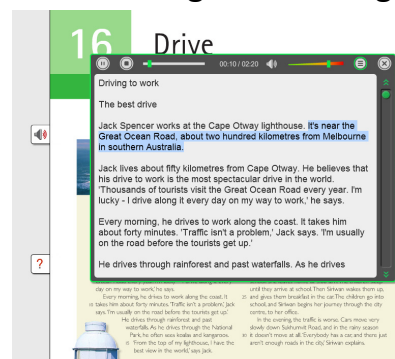

Now

- Bookmark it!
- Choice – how many times? with or without sub-titles?

L2 Lesson stream (Jamie Keddie)

L3 Listening and reading

R1 - Reading

R2 – The wonderful world of E-books

Kindle

Alice for the iPad

R3 Screen reveal tool – speed read

Speaking

S1 - Flip video

S2 - Voting devices

"Students should turn off their mobile phones in class"

Vote now:
1 – Yes
2 – Unsure
3 – No

S3 - Timed anecdotes

2 You're going to tell your partner about your favourite festival or party.

- Ask yourself the questions in Exercise 1.
- Think about what to say and how to say it.
- Tell your partner about your favourite festival or party.

My favourite festival is ...

Task repetition

Writing - wiki

W1 – Peer correction
W2 – Refutation

W3 - Handwriting recognition software work rest play Is it possible for us to imagine the experience of trench warfare?

Living conditions Yes, what it looked like Medical conditions Not what it felt like
Fighting conditions Doctor Poem Video DVD Discussion

P1 – interactive charts

Phonetic Chart
Downloadable phonetic chart from Sound Foundations.
Depending on the speed of your computer this may take up to 20 seconds to load.

Pronunciation

- P2 - Sound linking
– Take it in / one apple / five elephants
- P3 - Homographs
– Read / wind / row / tear

G1 – Mobile - recycling

G2 – customising games – NIOD

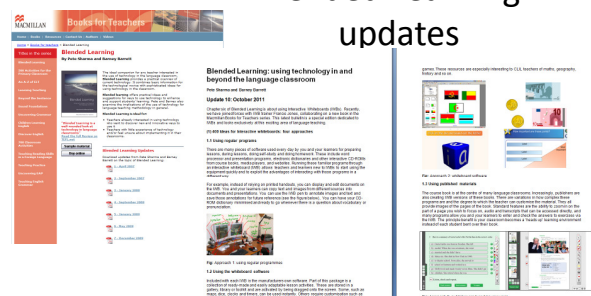

Games

• G3 – Digital die

Stay up to date

Blended Learning - updates

PSA

Pete Sharma Associates

Download | Email Address | Update your profile | Forward to a friend

Subscribe to our free Newsletter

Dear Subscriber,

Welcome to our latest newsletter. It has been a whirl due to teaching commitments, the summer is always hectic for both Pete and me, and then you spend the next month catching up on what you should have done over the summer. There is still lots to report on though, and some really interesting things in the pipeline, so I won't waste any more space, apart from to say, we all at Pete Sharma Associates Ltd wish you a great Christmas!

New Dawn: symposium in Madrid

Revised to May 19th, the date of the first PSA mini summit, held in Madrid. The event, designed to explore some of the issues around the increasing use of technology in language teaching, was made possible by the co-operation of the UK Department of Trade and Industry. The team there were instrumental in contacting decision makers at ministry level and key teachers at university & state language institutions. We at PSA were delighted that the event was sponsored by Cambridge Intouch and Macmillan Education.

The venue itself was quite literally breathtaking. The British Embassy in Madrid is on the 41st floor of the spectacular Torre ESpain.

The day started with an introductory talk by Martin Wain, the Director of UK Trade and Investment, Spain. In his speech, Martin asked me the time, I looked at my watch. He then asked Olga, one of his team and considerably younger than me, she checked her mobile phone! This effectively highlighted the generational difference which comes through in education and the use of new technologies.

Teaching & Learning in the Digital Age

My keynote presentation was delivered in Spanish! I had to check if a word was masculine or feminine (is it un wiki or una wiki?), decide which accent goes where on a word and on whether the audience will understand acronyms like EUI (Spanish for ULE). During the presentation, I accidentally changed from Spanish into English without realising it. Talk about code-switching! (Follow link for information on other presentations and more pictures)

Macmillan Books for Teachers

Teaching in the digital age: what every language teacher should know

Pete Sharma

